Warranty

KENWOOD is proud of the quality and workmanship of its audio equipment. This unit has been properly designed, carefully tested and inspected before it was shipped to you. If properly installed and operated in accordance with your instruction manual, it should give optimum reliable performance.

KENWOOD unit is guaranteed against all defects in material and workmanship. All parts and labor are guaranteed for one year from date of original purchase.

This warranty does not apply to unit which has been subjected to misuse, abuse, neglect, accident or improper installation, nor extend to unit which has been repaired or altered by unauthorized agencies, nor to cases where the serial number had been removed, defaced or altered.

WARRANTY PROCEDURE

The warranty card must be filled out and mailed to us within ten days from date of purchase in order for the guarantee to be valid. The owner's portion of the warranty card will be returned to you bearing your Warranty Registration number.

If trouble develops, notify us giving model, serial and warranty registration numbers of your equipment. Describe in detail the defective operation. Describe the effects each operating control has upon the symptoms of trouble. Include details on electrical connection to associated equipments and list such equipments.

Upon receiving this information, we will send you service information if the trouble can be easily corrected. If the trouble requires factory servicing, we shall forward you the name and address of one of our authorized service centers nearest you or instruct you to send your unit to the factory service department. IMPORTANT! Owner's Warranty Card must be enclosed with your unit when requesting service under warranty.

This unit must be shipped in its original carton or equivalent, fully insured and shipping charges prepaid. KENWOOD will not assume the responsibility of any uninsured merchandise received in damaged condition.
